

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

She took off with a suitcase and her phone.

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Who do you call when you need advice? Why?
- Have you ever left a place because you were so angry? What happened?

Can Do Statements

- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can talk about what I did.
- I can talk about past habits.

Let's Explore!

Marco calls his friend for advice. Does Marco always turn it around?

* To "turn it around" means to make a situation better.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Tony: Hello?
Marco: Hi, Tony ... it's Marco. Did I catch you at a bad time?
Tony: Not at all. I thought you were in Cambridge, visiting Vanessa.
Marco: I am. I've messed it all up, Tony!
Tony: What do you mean? You used to talk about how you two are going to get married. What happened?
Marco: I've behaved terribly ... I said things that I didn't mean.
Tony: Where's Vanessa?
Marco: I don't know where she went. She took off with a suitcase and her phone.
Tony: OK, don't worry. You guys have always made up and moved on, right?
Marco: Yeah ...
Tony: She just needs time to cool off. You would always come over and blow off steam at my place, right? She needs to do the same thing.
Marco: You're right. I can't believe how stupid I am!
Tony: Don't be so hard on yourself. You've always turned it around. Give it some time.
Marco: Thanks, mate. I knew I could count on you to make me feel better.
Tony: No worries. Let me know how things go. Good luck, man!

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about the past*. Vanessa took off with a suitcase and her phone.

*Remember to use the Simple Past tense to talk about the past.

"To take off" means to leave.

Instructions: Mark with a circle the correct word to complete each sentence. Then, write the correct sentences on the lines.

1. Do / Did / Does I catch you at a bad time?

2. I say / said / says things that I didn't mean.

3. I knew / know / knows I could count on you to make me feel better.

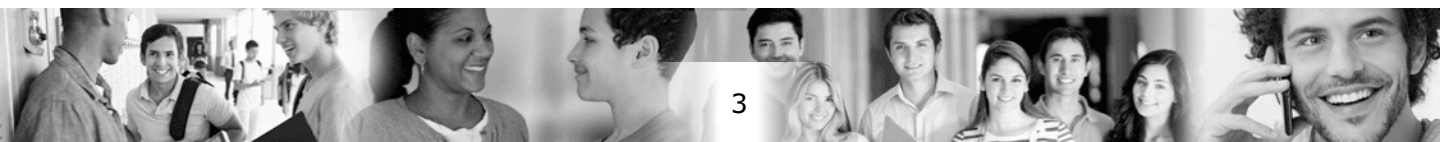

Let's Practice!

Have you practiced enough?

Instructions: Find the words in the word search below.

Words

- made up
- moved on
- messed up
- behaved
- have
- has

Extension Activity

What do you do to blow off steam?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Discuss with your partner what you do (or did) to blow off steam.
- Compare which method works best.
- Ask follow-up questions to keep the conversation going.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I discuss with my partner what I do to blow off steam.

☐ ☐

I talk about what I used to do to blow off steam.

☐ ☐

I ask follow-up questions.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to catch someone at a bad time (expression): to interrupt someone e.g. Did I catch you at a bad time?
- to mess it up (expression): to ruin something good or a good situation
e.g. I've really messed it up this time.
- to move on (verb): to stop dealing with something or someone and do something else
e.g. You guys always made up and moved on.
- to cool off (verb): to calm down
e.g. You would always come to my house to cool off.
- stupid (adjective): foolish
e.g. I can't believe how stupid I am!
- to be hard on yourself (expression): to tell yourself negative things
e.g. Don't be so hard on yourself.

Learning Points

The Present Perfect Tense vs. The Simple Past Tense

Let's compare the simple past and present perfect:

Simple Past

It refers to an action that occurred at a definite time in the past.

Examples:

I said things that I didn't mean yesterday.

He caught me at a bad time last Saturday.

These actions are finished when we have a definite time (yesterday, last Saturday).

You can use other time expressions + simple past

He did that ...	in 2000 last night last weekend on January 2nd three days ago
-----------------	---

Present Perfect

It refers to an action that happened at an indefinite time in the past.

Examples:

You guys have always made up and moved on.

I have said terrible things.

These actions can continue to the present.

We have talked about getting married ...	for years.
We have been a couple ...	since 2014.
I have waited for Vanessa ...	since she took off.
She has ...	never taken her suitcases.

Learning Points

Used to and Would to Talk About Past Habits

When you talk about routines in the past, you can use the expressions would and used to, followed by the verb in the basic form.

When you use the expression used to in the negative form, you use the auxiliary did. Look at the change in the expression:

Example:

You used to talk about how you two are going to get married.

I used to count on you.

I didn't use to talk to anybody else.

Use wouldn't for the negative form of the expression:

Example:

We would talk about our future plans.

We wouldn't spend time fighting at all.

Examples:

- You used to talk about how you and her are going to get married.
- You would always come over and blow off steam at my place, right?

