

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's my way or the highway!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about rooms and objects in them.
- I can talk about past and present habits.
- I can offer advice and solutions.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you have arguments?
- Who do you argue with? Your friend?
Your family?
What do you argue about?

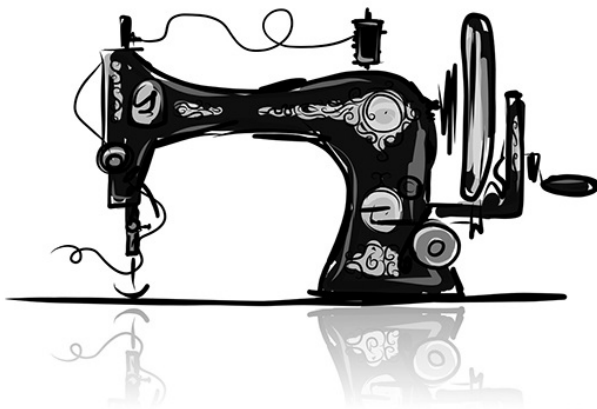

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Marco argue ... who says whatever pops into their head?

* When you "say whatever pops into your head", you say things without thinking first.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: It's my way or the highway? You'd better take that back, Marco. I never let other people tell me what to do like that.
- Marco: You're so touchy, V. Just take it easy.
- Vanessa: I'm being perfectly reasonable. You ought to think before you speak, you know. My mother would say, "If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all."
- Marco: My mother used to say that, too. You might want to hear yourself before you recklessly accuse me of being insensitive. You said my mother was strange!
- Vanessa: You have selective hearing, Marco. I meant her advice was strange ...
- Marco: Hmm ... you cleverly got out of that one, didn't you? What's this here?
- Vanessa: It's my antique sewing machine ... my grandmother used to use it.
- Marco: She would make clothes from this? Wow - it's ancient!
- Vanessa: There you go again - rudely saying whatever pops into your head!
- Marco: Why is it in the kitchen, anyway? Shouldn't it be in a sewing room?
- Vanessa: Does it look like I have a sewing room?
- Marco: Honestly, I don't know ... you ought to give me a tour.

Let's Practice!

What did they used to* do?

*Remember the spelling of the verb used to in a question.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write the words in the correct order to form the sentence.

1. My / mother / that, / used to / . / too / say

2. My / it / use / . / used to / grandmother

3. me / other / people / tell / what / that / I / let / like / do / never / to / .

4. from / clothes / ? / She / make / this / would

Let's Practice!

Take* some advice, would you?

*You give and "take" advice.

Instructions: Fill the blanks with the words below to correctly complete the sentences.

Word bank

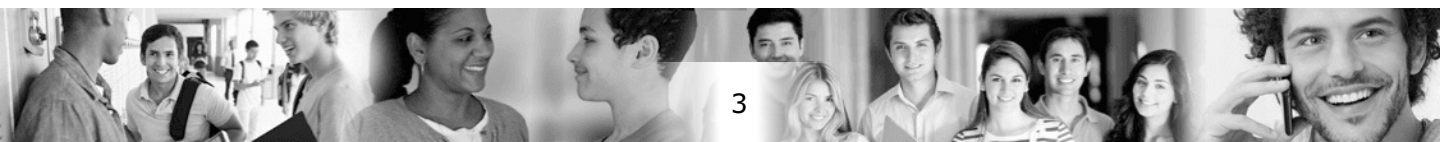

ought to think / ought to / wants / ought / touchy / you'd better /
might / might want to / perfectly reasonable

1. _____ take that back - I'm being _____.

2. You _____ before you speak, you know.

3. You _____ hear yourself - you're so _____.

4. You _____ give me a tour.

Extension Activity

Tell me about what you used to do with your family.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- With a partner, talk about what you used to do with your family when you were a child.
- Give as many details as you can.
- Ask follow-up questions to keep the conversation going.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about past habits with my partner.

☐ ☐

I give details about what I used to do with my family.

☐ ☐

I ask follow-up questions.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- touchy (adjective): easily upset; emotionally sensitive
e.g. You're so touchy today - take it easy.
- perfectly (adverb): in a perfect way
e.g. I'm being perfectly calm.
- reasonable (adjective): logical; sensible
e.g. I'm being perfectly reasonable.
- recklessly (adverb): dangerously; without care
e.g. You are behaving recklessly.
- to accuse (verb): to formally say someone did something e.g. You recklessly accuse me of being insensitive.
- cleverly (adverb): in a smart way
e.g. You cleverly got out of that argument.
- sewing machine (noun): a machine used for making clothes
e.g. It's my antique sewing machine.
- sewing room (noun): a room used for making clothes
e.g. Shouldn't your sewing machine be in your sewing room?

Learning Points

Offering Advice

Giving advice in English might seem tricky at first. To talk about what is advisable (what you think should be done), we use had better, ought to and might want to.

These phrases come before the verb.

Subject + had better + verb: You'd better take that back!

Subject + ought to + verb: You ought to think before you speak, you know.

Subject + might want to + verb: You might want to hear yourself.

Used to and Would

When you talk about regular events in the past, you can use used to or would. These are alternative forms from the Simple Past + Adverbs of frequency.

My grandmother used to like sewing. She would sew for hours.

Used to is used for actions (study, work, talk, read, etc.) and for states, or permanent events in the past (be, have, like, think).

Would is used for actions only. We never use it to talk about past condition.

Example:

She used to give me advice when I was sad.

She would give me advice when I was sad.

I used to be reckless when I was a child.

~~I would be reckless when I was a child.~~

