Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: A Rocky Relationship

Learning Outcome

Identify and provide solutions to problems in a range of social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Have you been in a difficult relationship?
What happened?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the sound sc.
- I can talk about what is necessary.
- I can talk about what people have and haven't done.

Let's Explore!

Listen to the conversation between Marco and Vanessa as they head out for dinner. Is this a rocky relationship?

* A "rocky" relationship is one with many ups and downs.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Marco, can you pass me that scarf and my keys, please?
Marco: Here you go. Should I bring a jacket?
Vanessa: Probably. You're Australian, aren't you? It's been chilly in the evenings.
Marco: Anything under 20 degrees is cool for me.
Vanessa: We need to get a parking spot close to the restaurant.
Marco: Why? Are you scared of a little walking?
Vanessa: No, but I haven't walked in these high heels before.
Marco: I haven't seen those ones before ... they're nice.
Vanessa: Aww ... that's sweet.
Marco: Ok, now you're blushing like a school girl. Let's get going.
Vanessa: The hockey is still on. Can you turn off the television, too?
Marco: Hey, the Maple Leafs just scored. It's a tied game. We'll have to leave in a bit.
Vanessa: Hey, hold on. We have a reservation and the traffic is abhorrent this time of night. We've got to leave now!
Marco: Wow, this is like lacrosse! I've played that before.
Vanessa: Marco, you have five minutes.
Marco: Are there any cold drinks in the fridge?

Let's Practice!

Marco and Vanessa talk before they leave for dinner. What do they think is necessary?
